WE learn that a telegram from Shanghai was received this morning announcing the audden doath of Mr R. E. Wainewright, the well-known solicitor at that port. Mr. Wainewright was an active citizen, and his death will pause a considerable blank in the public life of the Model Settlement. The loss to Shanghai of two such men as Robert Mackenzie and R. E. Wainewright within Hankow stating that it is reported by two or three weeks is much to be regretted.

Ar the Magistracy to-day, Lat Wing, shroff, MAN MAIL of Feb, 15th, left Singspore | was charged before Mr Wodehouse by his employer, Li Chu Loung, late Opium Dross Farmer at Yaumati, with embezzling $80 between August 5, 1891, and February 27, 1892. The complainent stated that the defendant was employed to collect all money from the opium shops and his remuneration was one-fourth of all surplus profits after the Farmer had received a stipulated sum of $210 a month. When the books were THE visitors to the City Hall Museum dur- made up on February 29, at the end of the term of the Farm contract, it was found that the year showed a loss of $250. The agreement was that it there were no profits the defendant gill no remuneration, but did not have to make up any deficiency. He did not contribute sny capital. After making up the accounts the complainant went over them with the defendant. There was a sum of $80 due from Lai which he refused to pay. He admitted having received the amount, and offered to pay $3 a month, which was refused. The defendant stated in Court that under the contract if any opium shop ceased to do business he was to carry it on himself for the Farmer, paying the regular foe and receiving one fourth of the profit if any was made. He did carry on one shop in Tai-kok tsul, but had not paid the monthly fee. Mr. Wodehouse adjourned the case till to-morrow, fixing onl at $100.

THE LATEST MILITARY VOTE. The Colonial Secretary moved the adontion of the report of last meeting of the Finance Committee, which included the vote of £3928.7.11 due to the War Department out of a sum of £116,000 voted for defence works.'. The Colonial Treasurer seconded.

Mr Whitehead Sir, I rise to move that the vote of $3928.7.11 be reduced by half. in which the War Office indented upon this Colony, namely in sterling as well as in dolwith the result that a considerable loss has now to be faced, whereas if the rate of exchange had been fixed at the time or if the War Office had given the Colonial Government any intimation whatever that the rate of exchange would be fixed at the rate, of the day on a date to be named hereafter. the Colonial Government would have protected itself against this loss. I think that as the War Office has blundered equally with the Colonial Government, the War Office should pay half of this loss which has now to be faced. I therefore move the reduction of the vote by half.

The amendment was not seconded, but a division was taken, with the result that all the members voted in favour of the motion with the exception of Mr. Whitehead.

ENGLISH OPINION ON THE PRESIDENTIAL London, February 13.-In the course of long article the Spectator says : The retirement of Blaine from the position c andidate for nomination for President of the United States has brought the Presidency into special prominence. The Spectator thinks Blaine's friends in the Republican convention will not allow Mr Harrison to be renominated. The Republicans, the Speciator says, have an ideal dark horse in Robert Lincoln, the American Minister Great Britain. He would prove the most formidable candidate they could choose. It adds that this fact is already widely recognized. The Spectator deprecates the annoyance Americans so often show because of England's interest in the Presidency, and says the English have no desire to interfere, but in the case of so near a relation they cannot help taking an interest. The Spectator concludes : No European succession is of half such impartance to us. The people of this country, despite their shyness and consequent ap-
